My Domainer's Magazine is in

I was just wondering about this last week, "didn't I subscribe to some domainer magazine, sight unseen a while back?"

Yes I did, and my first issue of Domainers' Magazine arrived this week. It looks quite professionally done. Looking forward to checking it out, I'll bring it home with me going into the long weekend (Happy Canada Day hosers and an early Happy 4th of July to our southern neighbours eh)
